

- 6 From the Editor
- 8 The Calendar
- 10 Reader Page
- 12 Popular Mechanics Everywhere

HOW YOUR WORLD WORKS

- 15 A space race for the 21st century
- 17 One new roller coaster, six broken world records
- 18 How alcohol is good for communities
- 20 The science in your soap
- 22 Things Come Apart: Plasma cutter
- 24 The maker's guide to Providence, Rhode Island
- 28 Great Unknowns

KNOW-HOW

- 31 Tool Test: The Great American Grill Test
- 38 A celebration of the CNC machine
- 40 Shop Notes
- 45 Getting Started in: Kayaking
- 48 Ask Roy

DRIVING

- 51 No way. Is that...could it be? Acura finally delivers the NSX
- 54 How It Works: The lithium-ion car battery
- 56 My Ride: An Army major's beloved Bronco
- 58 Reviews: The latest from Volkswagen, Chrysler, and Buick
- 60 The Humble Mechanic shares his essential tools
- 62 Buzz Bissinger buys a Harley

THE LIFE

- 65 & Sons & Daughters
A special edition: Five businesses keeping it in the family

PROJECT

- 103 The Grease Car
How I converted my 1979 Mercedes to run on vegetable oil.
By Brad Wheelwright

POPULAR MECHANICS FOR KIDS

- 106 Groovy Lab in a Box
Construct a lantern made of ice and learn a little science

STUPID OR AMAZING?

- 112 LEED certification for homes
By David Owen

*Things
my Father*

JUNE • 2016

INTI INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY
TSAM LIBRARY

Date received : 21/7/2016

Publisher : IBG

72
"ONE UNIT, RIGHT TO THE VERY END"
Vice President Joe Biden's Test Mission Headed to brain cancer a year ago. In their first interview together since, he and son Hunter talk about the bond between father and children.
INTERVIEWED BY RYAN D'AGOSTINO

CHAPTER 02
78
THE TOGETHER TRIP
To find out what dads and kids learn from one another, you have to go to where dads and their kids are: two days, three games, and a lot of good advice at spring training in Florida.

CHAPTER 03
84
WHO ROY ASKS
For the last 26 years, senior home editor Roy Berendsohn has provided readers with instruction and advice on every household project imaginable. Meet the man who taught him everything he knows: Roy's 91-year-old dad, Oscar.
INTERVIEWED BY CAL FUSSMAN

CHAPTER 04
89
MY FATHER'S GARDEN
In my family, the quiet care of tending a garden is the heirloom that gets passed down from generation to generation.
BY C. J. CHIVERS

CHAPTER 05
90
THE KNOWLEDGE PRESERVATION SOCIETY
Presenting our compendium of slightly endangered skills, wisdom, and old-fashioned know-how that every dad should teach his kids.

CHAPTER 06
96
IN THE LIGHT FIELDS
Hydroponic farming may be giving Milan and Daniel Kluko hope for a sustainable future, but it's the work itself that's delivering the father and son from grief.
BY LINA ZELDOVICH