

2 | Conversation 4 | For the Record

The Brief

News from the U.S. and around the world

5 | The Russia probe moves closer to the White House

8 | Ian Bremmer: Five world leaders less popular than President Trump

9 | The legacy of former Fox News CEO Roger Ailes

10 | Scenes from Trump's first overseas trip as President

14 | Will loyalty help or hurt Vice President Mike Pence's political future?

The View

Ideas, opinion, innovations

15 | Bill Gates discusses his summer reading list and the books that changed his life

19 | Wind power's biggest new fans are in Carbon County, Wyoming

20 | At John F. Kennedy's centennial, a nation different from the one he led

The Features

Manchester, United

How the U.K. responds to the terrorist attack at a concert in Manchester will shape the country it seeks to become after Brexit
By Dan Stewart 22

When a House Is Not a Home

A Syrian refugee family is given a place to live in Estonia but hesitates to put down roots. The latest in TIME's multimedia series, Finding Home
By Aryn Baker 28

The Truth About Weight Loss

A look at the latest science on dieting, with tips for keeping off the pounds from people who had the most to lose
By Alexandra Sifferlin 36

Time Off

What to watch, read, see and do

45 | The big-screen Baywatch bares (almost) all

47 | The best of 2017 so far in TV, movies, podcasts, songs and video games

48 | Reviews of TV shows Twain Peaks, House of Cards and *The Keepers

50 | Lana Del Rey's latest album, Lust for Life

52 | 8 Questions for U.S. Senator Elizabeth Warren

▲ Syrian refugee Taimaa Abazli, holding baby Helin, stares out the door of her apartment building in Polva, Estonia, on April 20. "It's better that Helin won't remember any of this," she says.

Photograph by Lynsey Addario—Verbatim for TIME

ON THE COVER:
Illustration by Brobel Design for TIME