

Design An Inspection Jig For An Automobile Part

Prepared by: Ramesh Sellapan

ABSTRACT

This documentary reports the whole ideas and achievement of the project. This investigation concerned with design, ideas, with study research and implementing the chosen idea and design. This report contained information of the investigation during this project construction time. Starting with introduction (description) of the jig, follow by objectives of the design, scope of the project than the construction of the investigation. After that, the result will take place follow result and analysis, recommendation on design improvement and finally the conclusion. In the conclusion, the author wishes to express her point of view with the out coming result.