

CASE STUDY OF CONSTRUCTION ELEVATED WATER TANK

Prepared by: Vernon Hong Wee Shing

ABSTRACT

This project requires me to study about the construction of elevated water tank, which included the site clearing, leveling, surveying, setting out, bored piling, foundation scaffolding, piping and concreting. This project is written in detail with information about the construction of the elevated water tank with supported photographs.

This project is located at Tebedu, Samarahan Division that is approximately 90km from Kuching City. Scope of work in this contract to The Proposed Site Clearing, Earthwork and Infrastructure Works or Tebedu Industrial Estate Phase 1 Stage IIA, Samarahan Division is as shown in construction drawings and specification and other drawings and documents. The work includes: