

LIGHTENING DETECTOR

Prepared by: Azizul Bin Mohd. Nawi

ABSTRACT

The report of lighting detector project is describing the principles of lighting detector and its construction with a diagrams and photos. The main part of the report structure is the body where the introduction, results, analysis, objectives and other important elements stated here. At the end of the report would show a reader the conclusion of the lighting detector project where this is the part it review back the key points and, purpose of doing this project and its profit.