

FIRE INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM

Prepared by: Tan Kiat Thong

ABSTRACT

Fire Intelligence System is a system that protects loss of properties and human lives when fire occurs. With this system installed in any building, it

- Senses the smoke intensity in the air
- Reacts to these conditions when the smoke intensity increases

The system is basically divided into four parts, which are the smoke sensor, the control unit, the display/control panel, and the output devices.