K-MAPPER SOFTWARE

Prepared by: Low Jan Son

ABSTRACT

This report holds the information of this project – The K-Mapper. It contains the following details:-

Concept

You will find the development, the purpose and the implementation of the logic. There will be flow charts and illustrations to guide you through the understanding. From doing the Karnaugh Map to making the computer does the job for you

Coding

You will find the detail explanation on how each step is being coded logically. Explanation will be carried out following the flow chart introduced, and each block will be elaborated in details along with the functions that do the job. The source codes of every file involved are provided as appendix for your reference.

Software

At the end of this report you will find the features of the software,, as well as the weaknesses and strengths.