

REDESIGN COMPUTER TABLE IN ERGONOMICALLY

Prepared by: Wong Chee Her

ABSTRACT

This report basically consist of information on the current existing computer table availed in market compared to my new and improved in ergonomically designed view down computer table. The purpose of redesign computer table is to eliminate the back, neck, and eye stress and further enhances comfort and productivity. Besides that, posture is an important factor in eliminating stress and strain and getting comfortable, I will introduce how posture can affect the computer user. For the new design of computer table in ergonomically, I will also emphasized the characteristic of human and machine working together.