

ERGONOMICALLY DESIGN A DEVICE TO CUT CINCAU

Prepared by: Kumari D/o Ramasamy

ABSTRACT

This documentary reports the whole ideas and achievement of the project. This investigation concerned with design, ideas, with study research and implementing the chosen idea and design. This report contained information of the investigation during this project construction time. Starting with introduction (description) of the product, followed by objective of the design, scope of the project then the construction of the investigation. After that, the result will take place followed by result and analysis, recommendation on design improvement and finally the conclusion. In the conclusion, the author wishes to express her point of the view with the out coming the result.