

DESIGN OF AN AUTOMATIC RAIN & SUN SHIELDED WINDOW

Prepared by: Choo Siang Kock

ABSTRACT

This project report title as 'Design of an Automatic Rain & Sun Shielded Window' is suitable for the coming project students as reference and approach on how to manage a project. Those subjects offered in this program would be taken seriously in order to get credit.

In this section, I will describe simply about what is the content and information that included in this project report actually. Firstly, the mechanical part of the project, it explains the application into real life by the principle of Virtual Work that has been studies in Static. Besides, the concept use to determine the tension and forces acting on the sunblind system is totally an application form Dynamics and Machine Design.