E-Commerce Platform for Small Business

Prepared by: Zhao Xin

ABSTRACT

The purpose of doing the research project is to fulfill the requirement of pursuing the Master Program in E-commerce at Coventry University.

The goal of the project is to research and design the E-commerce platform for small business.

The objective of this project is to determine the benefits and problems of the Ecommerce and try to provide some recommendation that can help small business develop in e-business. The second, to design the e-commerce platform with administration control system for small business that can be to open business for small business easily.