

New Master's course by Inti

Inti College recently signed an MoU with the University of Wollongong to offer the Master's in Quality Management Programme.

The programme offers studies in modern management, productivity improvement concepts and techniques.

The course is conducted on a part-time basis and can be completed in 16 months. Participants must also attend on-site instructional blocks at the college. The first intake for the programme is expected to begin early next year.

Candidates should have either an undergraduate degree from a recognised university or institution of equivalent standing or other post-secondary qualifications plus five years of experience of which at least two should be in the area of quality management.
