

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

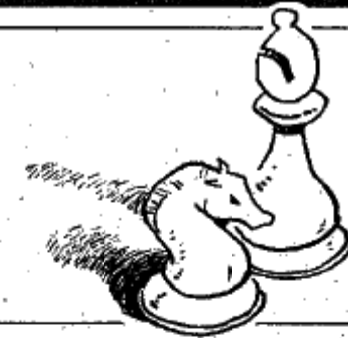

- Enrollment for new students into the 3+0 degree programmes as well as other academic programmes at Nilai College.

30

31

This diary is to keep readers informed about the daily goings-on in the education sector for the month. We would like education institutions, public and private organisations to write in if there is a public event you want us to highlight in the diary. All information must reach us two weeks before the end of the preceding month. Do keep us up-to-date so that we can keep others informed.

- Commencement of the 12th Royal Selangor Juniors chess open tournament hosted by Sunway College.
- Dinner and Dance at Hotel Armada organised by the students and staff of Stamford College's American Degree Programme.
- Education Ventures Sdn Bhd will launch its second school - Sekolah Seri Cahaya, a private kindergarten, primary and secondary school. The launch will be at the Sheraton Hotel in Subang Jaya at 10.30am.
- Sedaya College holds a two-day inter-college netball competition.
- Kolej Damansara Utama will hold its 15th graduation ceremony at the college at 9am followed by the graduation ball in the evening.

- The Kancil education group's SPM examination seminar at Universiti Malaya from 8.30 am to 6.00pm. Seminars will be conducted by book writers and examination experts. For details contact Mahani or Thirsha at 03-731 6377 or 03-736 6985.

2

- Commencement of the Nova Scotia Bank Training Programme, in collaboration with Help Institute's department of business studies. For details call Stephen Wu at 03 254 200 (ext 370)
- A week-long charity food sale will be held at the Metropolitan College by the students of its RMIT programme. The sale is part of their fund raising efforts for children who need heart transplants.

3

4

5

- Taylor's College organises a trip to Taman Negara for its students and staff.

6

- Taylor's College holds its Orientation Dinner and Dance at the college at 7pm.

7

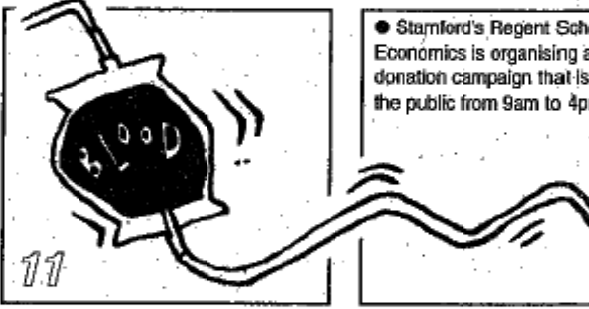

- Taylor's College will host a public seminar on Britain's Cambridge University titled Cambridge - journeys to present an insight on study and student life at the university. For details contact Vanessa Lim at 03 736 2641.
- Sepang Institute of Technology will hold its English Language Challenge which is open to all secondary schools in the Klang District.
- Reliance School of Tourism organises a talk on skin care and beauty.

9

- Sunway College's School of Hospitality Management begins its orientation programme.
- Sunway College begins its career and information week.

10

11

- Stamford's Regent School of Economics is organising a blood donation campaign that is open to the public from 9am to 4pm.

12

- Sepang Institute of Technology's holds its MBA presentation ceremony.

13

- Kolej Tunku Abdul Rahman's convocation ceremony will be held at its main campus.
- Sedaya College conducts a public seminar on study skills for secondary schools. Admission is free. For details call Roger Yap at 03 9329326.

14

- Help Institute's business department and the Australian Society of Child Practitioners will be holding an inter-Australian university quiz competition. The competition is open to all local colleges that offer Australian programmes. For details, call Vijinair at 03 201 841.
- Nilai college holds its open day from 9am to 5pm. For details call 06 850 2388.
- Visiting lecturer from Curtin University, Ruth Taylor, will be giving lectures and workshops on Tourism Management at Metropolitan College.
- Sunway College will host the ASCPA Malaysian Quiz competition.

15

- Visiting Curtin lecturers Dr Heinz Dreher and Dr John Evans will be giving lectures on Information Systems and Finance International respectively at Metropolitan University.
- Taylor's College Kuala Lumpur hosts a visit by course moderators from the University of Brighton.

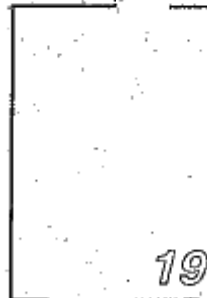

16

- Visit from a representative from the Oxford Brooks University to Help Institute. Students who are keen to find out more may attend. For details contact Desmond Yuen at 03 254 2000 (ext 367).
- Inter-School games organised by the sports committee of Kolej Tunku Abdul Rahman. The games will last until August 24.
- Sunway College's inter-college Volleyball tournament begins. The tournament is until Aug 21.

17

- The University of West of England, Bristol's South-East Asia co-ordinator Mike Read will be visiting Nilai College. For details call Nirmala Ramoo at 06 850 2388.

18

19

- A representative from the University of Queensland will conduct a seminar at Sedaya College for students interested in their programmes. For details call 03 9329326.

20

- Help Institute's Christian fellowship will hold its annual camping trip to Port Dickson. For details call Yuen Ling at 02 254 2000(ext 386).

21

- Int'l College holds its orientation for new students at its Subang Jaya campus.
- Reliance School of Tourism commences its Japanese language course for beginners. Those interested can call 03 244 5791.
- Sunway College holds its open day from 9am to 6pm.
- Sekolah Sri Bunga Raya will be conducting entrance tests for primary school students as well as students in forms one and two from 9am for the 1999 academic year. For details call 03 272 358 or 03 272 3649.

22

- Visiting Curtin lecturers to Metropolitan College Pamela Mary Hedges and Geoffrey Gordon Hoare will conduct lectures and workshops on organisation behaviour and employee relations respectively.

23

- Students of Sedaya College leave on a college trip to Pulau Kapas.
- Taylor's College's ADP holds its Fall '98 Orientation for new intake.
- Sunway College begins its "Patriotism Week".

24

25

- The Human Resources Development Institute is organising a career day.

26

27

- Orientation day for students entering Help Institute's American Degree Programme. Among the items lined up for them are a series of briefings followed by a campus tour. For details call Lee Sook Wee at 03 254200 (ext 271).
- Taylor's College's American Degree Programme conducts a workshop on Studying in America. The workshop is open to the public. For details, call the ADP office at 03 736 2641.

28

- Reliance School of Tourism will organise a educational tour to KLIA.

29

