

Colourful costumes at college's dinner

THE guests turned up in colourful international costumes at Inti College's annual dinner recently, befitting the theme for the evening, "International Expressions."

Present were Inti Universal Holdings Berhad chairman Tan Sri Abdul Majid Ismail, its president Tan Yew Sing and wife, and Inti Holdings directors Teo Choon Kwang, Low Sik Thong, Chia Song Klan and Low Han Sin. They attended the function.

The staff and students of Inti College put up entertaining performances that featured dances and songs from around the world.

Long-service awards were presented to Kusumaletha Morris and Roseliza Mohd Ramly, both senior staff from the college's Department of Languages and Liberal Arts.

The night ended with individual and table lucky draws, which saw staff members and many more.

A lively 'twist' performance by the staff of Inti College's Student Services Division.

A Tibetan dance performed by lovely lasses from the college's Chinese Cultural Society.