

Inti students visit orphanages

Lecturers and students of Inti College with the orphans from Rumah Keluarga Kami.

CHILDREN from three orphanages in Kajang made new friends when lecturers and students from Inti College paid them a visit recently.

For the 11 lecturers and 48 students from the School of Languages and Liberal Arts (SOLIA), the visit was very much an eye-opener as the experience was a first for many of them.

Rumah Faith, Shelter Home and Rumah Keluarga Kami.

Upon arrival at the orphanages, the visitors were warmly greeted by the children.

They took on the role of "big brothers and sisters" and encouraged the children to participate in activities that had been lined up for them.

They played games together, learnt the art of origami and had

Cheng Yang, a student from China, was so moved by the children's positive attitude that she is looking forward to visiting them again soon.

"The visit has taught me to appreciate and value things in life and I consider myself very lucky to have the opportunity of meeting them," she said.

The visit is a form of learning for the students, said college coordinat