

Inti College's honour roll

THREE Inti College students in the American University Programme were placed on the President's List while 49 achieved the Dean's Honour Roll this year.

President's Honour Roll recipient Proscovia Kunguru attributes her achievement to her mother who she says has been a major source of inspiration and encouragement.

Marziq Haqim Marzuki who received his Certificate of Excellence shares that the secret of his success lay in having a balance between leisure and studies.

Thor Chay Kwian (pic) who excelled in her Cost and Management accounting paper believes that understanding the subject in class will help in your exam. This active student spends her free time with social work and plans to pursue an MBA.

Meanwhile, Inti will be offering an Online Certified Mobile Internet Professional programme (CMIP or IE) soon.

The programme, to be offered in collaboration with Ericsson Academy Malaysia, will cater for both working adults and students who are interested in having a good understanding of the fast-evolving telecommunications landscape.

The easy-to-learn web-based programme will provide comprehensive, up-to-date and career-enhancing knowledge and wireless technology skills. Inti's senior vice-president (administration) Dr Lee Fah Onn said the programme will be extended to China, Vietnam and lege were treated to an International Razzmatazz where Inti talents put up a spectacular showcase of song and dance from all over the world.

The highlight of the show was the Windows to the World...
