

Inti's Carnival of Delights

Inti College Subang Jaya's Carnival Delight recently saw students putting away their textbooks for some much deserved merry-making.

Part of the college's 15th anniversary celebration, the event saw, among others a food fair where students and staff mingled, thronging the many stalls boasting various local food.

The highlight of the day was a fashion show by eight students and staff who modelled Lee jeans.

Anglo Apparel Sdn Bhd, the company which loaned the jeans also sponsored 10 vouchers worth RM100 each as well as t-shirts for lucky draw winners. A hamper and a cosmetic gift pack worth RM250 were also given away in the lucky draw.
