

Mapco's RM1.3m scholarship

Aid extended to students pursuing studies in member institutions

PETALING JAYA, Sun: The Malaysian Association of Private Colleges (Mapco) is offering scholarships to students who wish to pursue studies in participating member colleges and institutions.

The Mapco Scholarship Fund 2001 - worth RM1.3 million - is a contribution of its participating member colleges and in line with the government's policy of establishing a caring society.

The fund's primary objective is to provide educational opportunities to academically deserving students who may not have the financial means and for those who have the potential of becoming future leaders.

The participating member colleges this year are Asia Pacific Institute of Information Technology (APIIT), Binary College, HELP Institute, Inti College, Kemayan Advance Tertiary College, Kolej Bandar Utama, Kolej Damansara Utama, Kolej Dised Stamford, Nilai College, Pusat Teknologi dan Pengurusan Lanjutan (PTPL), SAL Group of Colleges, Sedaya College, Sepang Institute of Technology, Sunway College, Stamford College, Systematic Education Group, Taylor's College and Business Schools, Universiti Tun Abdul Razak (Unitar) and Taylor's College School of Hotel Management.

Those interested can obtain application forms from the participating colleges or send a stamped self-addressed envelope to Wan Sook Han, Mapco Scholarship Committee, c/o Taylor's College Subang Jaya, 1 Jalan SS 15/8, 47500 Subang Jaya.

Abdul Aziz (third from left) poses with Tengku Shamsul (fourth from left) and representatives of Mapco games winners. - SUNPIX

Applications can also be made via the Internet at www.studymalaysia.com/mapco or by e-mailing Wan Sook Han at wan.sookhan@taylors.edu.my.

Meanwhile, Mapco yesterday held its fourth annual dinner at Nikko Hotel in Kuala Lumpur.

Deputy Education Minister Datuk Abdul Aziz Shamsuddin was the guest-of-honour during the event in which Sunway College, HELP Institute and Inti College were among the winners of the Mapco Inter-College Games 2000.

Mapco announced its new governing council members at its fifth annual general meeting, also held yesterday.

Tengku Shamsul Bahrin of Nilai College was elected as the president, Tan Sri Ramon Navaratnam of Sunway College as deputy president, Khoo Soo Peng of Taylor's College as vice-president and Datuk Teo Chiang Liang of Kolej Bandar Utama as secretary-general.