

Student Khaw puts in a winning performance to grab the prize in her category.

Fun with English

THE concourse area of Inti College Subang Jaya was recently packed with students and staff who gathered to support their friends and fellow colleagues sing their favourite songs up on stage.

The karaoke competition was organised by the English Campaign committee as part of its efforts to promote the use of English on campus.

Ng Mee Lin, an English Campaign committee member considered the competition a success.

"We organised it because we believe that English can be learnt in many ways including singing.

"A Scrabble competition, a treasure hunt and a debate are on the drawing board for the future," she said.

The competition was divided into three categories namely staff, students and duets.

The crowd cheered as each sporting contestant went up on stage to render oldies as well as latest hits.

The highlight of the event was the question-and-answer session that each participant had to go through with the emcee who had the crowd giggling with his antics.

The contestants appeared in all shapes and sizes, some crooning, some rocking, and some singing love ballads.

The prizes went to lecturer Liew Fon Sam, student Lyndal Khaw and the team of Chua and Frankie.

It was an entertaining two hours. Some members of the audience even missed lunch for they were glued to their seats from noon to 2pm.