

Basketball camp in Nilai

INTERNATIONAL basketball players K. Satyaseelan and John Ng will share their experience with participants of the Inti Educational Basketball Camp at Inti College in Nilai from Dec 17-19.

The three-day camp, organised by Inti College and Keysport and sponsored by And1, caters for youngsters aged 16 to 21.

"The objective of the camp is to provide a platform for youth to develop their skills in basketball besides promoting personal development," said Inti College students services division director Sia Ah Hioik after receiving sponsorship from And1 representative Ong Sai Ping recently.

"It will provide a platform for aspiring youngsters to master the techniques involved in basketball from experienced basketball players."

Both Satyaseelan and John represented Malaysia in several international competitions including the 1999 and 2001 SEA Games.

Keysport's marketing manager Kee H. Tan, a former international, said the purpose of the camp was to encourage more youngsters to take up basketball.

"At the same time we want to introduce them to other activities like computer skills and English," added Kee, who played for Malaysia in the 1995 and 1997 SEA Games.

Those who want to attend the camp will have to pay RM150 each. For more details, contact 06-7982 000 ext 2239.

Sai Ping (second from right) handing over a cap to Ah Hioik to mark their sponsorship.

