

200 pupils to take part in UPSR excellence workshop

Star 9/6/03 Nalion

PETALING JAYA: The coming UPSR 2003 excellence workshop has received encouraging response with some 200 participants expected to take part.

The one-day workshop will be held at five different venues.

The workshop here will be held on June 8 at Kolej Damansara Utama and on July 6 at Sunway College.

In Kuala Lumpur, it will be held at the Help Institute on June 22 and in Penang it will be held at Inti International College on June 29 while in Johor Baru, it will be held at Mawarnita Sdn Bhd on July 27.

Several companies have come forward to sponsor the workshop with various educational and health products like reading materials, stationery and health drinks.

Penerbit Fajar Bakti, a subsidiary of Oxford University Press, is sponsoring 1,500 copies of an exam-oriented practice book series called Praktis Tropikal Bistari worth RM5,000.

A. Clouet & Co (KL) Sdn Bhd is contributing 42 cartons of Vee-Good fruit juice drinks worth RM2,270.

Staedtler Marketing Sdn Bhd sponsored stationery packs worth RM7,350 while Glaxo SmithKline contributed Horlicks Malties worth

TASTY: A. Clouet & Co (KL) Sdn Bhd marketing communications executive Khoo-Wooi Ling (left) and The Star's assistant communications manager Azura Annuar trying the fruit juice.

RM2,500.

Other sponsors are Teik Senn (M) Sdn Bhd and Cerdik Publications Sdn Bhd.

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The registration form and payment must reach the organiser, Kuntum UPSR 2003, 10 days before the workshop.