College principal Dr Saw Sor Heoh said the college hoped to raise at least RM15,000 from this effort.

"Our students and staff have organised many fund-raising campaigns in the past. This is a part of the holistic education emphasised by the college," she said at the launch of the charity hunt by Subang Jaya state assemblyman Datuk Lee Hwa Beng recently.

House of Joy was established in 1999 and houses underprivileged, abused and children with Down's Syndrome as well as destitute old folks.

It presently has 49 residents. The charity treasure hunt is open to the public and has two categories: open and student.

The closing date is on June 2. Entry forms can be obtained from the college or downloaded from INTI College website at www.inti.edu.my.

Alternatively, participants can also contact Karen Tan, Mee Lin, Yeo, Malinee or Karen Liew at (03) 5634-3244 or Y.S. Khong at (012) 210-3879.
