

GIFTS OF APPRECIATION: Chai (right) displaying her company's name while Rofit shows the stationery which will be presented to the UPSR workshop participants. Workshops will be held in Petaling Jaya, Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Johor Baru.

Workshops to provide UPSR tips

PETALING JAYA: Pupils preparing for the upcoming UPSR should take note of workshops which will be held over the next few weeks to help them prepare for the examination.

They will receive valuable tips at the workshops.

The one-day workshops, organised by The Star's Kuntum magazine, will be held at Kolej Damansara Utama in Petaling Jaya on June 8, HELP Institute in Kuala Lumpur (June 22), Inti International College in Penang (June 29), Sunway College in Petaling Jaya (July 6) and Mawarmita in Johor Baru (July 27).

Staedtler is sponsoring the stationery for pupils who attend the workshops.

"This is a community project which will help pupils to prepare and it is our way of showing our appreciation to parents who support Staedtler," said its marketing executive Chai Woon Geok after handing over stationery to The Star's circulation executive Rofit Miah Abdul Karim at Menara Star yesterday.

Kuntum club members will be charged RM50 per person while non-members will have to pay RM70 to take part.

For details, call 03-79671388 ext 1168.