

Inti organising business opportunities seminar

INTI Management Services Sdn Bhd, in collaboration with China's Tsinghua University, will be organising a one-day seminar entitled, "Business and Investment Opportunities in Post 16th National Congress of China" on March 28 at the Legend Hotel in Kuala Lumpur.

The areas to be covered at the seminar includes the importance of the 16th National Congress and its influence towards future development of China, problems on the innovation of the political system in China and the opportunities arising from the contemporary macro-economic policies in China and its effects in the region.

Registration fee is RM550 inclusive of seminar notes, tea breaks and buffet lunch. The seminar would be conducted in Mandarin.

Further information can be obtained from Len Tze Jian at 03-2163 2953/54.