

Students from China die in crash

SEREMBAN: Two teenage students from China died while two others, including a local, were injured when their car crashed in Bandar Baru Nilai on Saturday night.

State traffic police chief ASP Abdul Majid Abdul Manaf said in the 9.10pm incident, the four, from ~~Nilai College~~ in Bandar Baru Nilai, were believed to be heading back to the college when the car skidded and hit some trees.

He said those killed, Wang Lei and Xu Ying Ting, both 19, who were in the back seat, sustained head injuries and died at the scene.

Abdul Majid said driver Gan Chun How, 19, from Taman Malim Jaya, Malacca, suffered bodily injuries and was admitted to the Malacca Hospital.

Meanwhile, another female student from China, Xhang Heng, 18, who was in the front passenger seat, has been admitted at the Seremban Hospital, he said.
